The first Rent payment, which shall be prorated if the Initial Term commences on a day other than the first day of the month, shall be due before possession is given to Tenant. Thereafter, all rentals shall be paid in advance, on or before the FIRST day of each month, for the duration of the tenancy.
3. Late Payment Fees and Returned Check Fees: Tenant shall pay the Late Payment Fee if any rental payment is not received by midnight on the fifth (5th day after it is due). This late payment fee shall be due immediately without demand and shall be added to and paid with the late rental payment. 15. Rental Application: In the event the Tenant has submitted a Rental Application in connection with this lease, Tenant acknowledges that the Landlord has relied upon the Application as an inducement for entering into this Lease and Tenant warrants to Landlord that the facts stated in the Application are true to the best of Tenant's knowledge. If the Tenant fails to sweep out and clean the Premises, appliances and fixtures as herein provided, Tenant shall become liable, without notice or demand, to the Landlord for the actual costs of cleaning (over and above ordinary wear and tear), which may be deducted from the Security Deposit as provided in paragraph 4 above.

In the event Tenant desires to terminate the Tenancy prior to the end of its term then in effect, Tenant acknowledges and understands that the Landlord will use reasonable efforts to re-rent the Premises, but that the Tenant shall remain responsible for the performance of all the Tenant's obligations under the Agreement until such time as the Landlord may be able to re-rent the Premises, unless the Landlord and the Tenant agree otherwise in writing.

17. Tenant's Breach:

- (a) Events Constituting Breach: It shall constitute a breach of this Agreement if Tenant fails to:
- Pay the full amount of rent herein reserved as and when it shall become due hereunder; or

In the event Tenant shall fail or refuse to surrender possession of the Premises, Landlord shall, in compliance with Article 2A of Chapter 42 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, reenter and retake possession of the Premises only through a summary ejectment proceeding.

 - (d) Acceptance of Partial Rent: Tenant acknowledges and understands that Landlord's acceptance of partial rent or partial housing subsidy will not waive Tenant's breach of this Agreement or limit Landlord's rights to evict Tenant through a summary ejectment proceeding, whether filed before or after Landlord's acceptance of any such partial rent or partial housing subsidy.

In the event Landlord institutes a legal action against the Tenant to enforce the lease or to recover any sums due hereunder, Tenant agrees to pay Landlord reasonable attorney's fees in addition to all other damages.
18. Landlord's Default; Limitation of Remedies and Damages: Until the Tenant notifies the Landlord in writing of an alleged default and affords the Landlord a reasonable time within which to cure, no default by the Landlord in the performance of any of the promises or obligations herein agreed to by him or imposed upon him by law shall constitute a material breach of this lease and the Tenant shall have no right to terminate this lease for any such default or suspend his performance hereunder. In no event and regardless of their duration shall any defective condition of or failure to repair, maintain, or provide any area, fixture or facility used in connection with recreation or recreational activities, including but not limited to swimming pools, club houses, and tennis courts, constitute a material breach of this lease and the Tenant shall have no right to terminate this lease or to suspend his performance hereunder. In any legal action instituted by the Tenant against the Landlord, the TENANT(S) damages shall be limited to the difference, if any, between the rent reserved in this lease and the reasonable rental value of the Premises, taking into account the Landlord's breach or breaches, and in no event, except in the case of the Landlord's willful or wanton negligence, shall the Tenant collect any consequential or secondary damages resulting from the breach or breaches, including but not limited to the following items: damage or destruction of furniture or other personal property of any kind located in or about the Premises, moving expenses, storage expenses, alternative interim housing expenses, and expenses of locating and procuring alternative housing.
19. Bankruptcy: If any bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings are filed by or against the Tenant or if the Tenant makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Landlord may, at his option, immediately terminate this Tenancy, and reenter and repossess the Premises, subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 USC Section 101, et. seq.) and the order of any court having jurisdiction thereunder.

MAINTENANCE ADDENDUM

All rental properties be inspected by Tenant prior to each occupancy and either videotaped, or pictures are digitally taken. We will use the move in videotape or pictures as evidence of the condition of the property at move in. Defective plumbing, heating and air conditioning, appliances, etc., should be noted separately for immediate attention.

During occupancy, the Tenant is responsible, at the Tenant's expense, for any and all minor repairs. These repair responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

PEST: The Tenant, at the Tenant's expense, is responsible for the regular extermination of ants, roaches, mice, bedbugs and other pests, unless otherwise stated in the lease.

PLUMBING: The Tenant is responsible for drain stoppages not attributable to plumbing defects, such as tree roots, defective septic systems, etc. The Tenant should never allow grease, sanitary napkins, etc. to enter the plumbing system. The Tenant is responsible for replacement of faucet washers and toilet tank balls, flappers, or chains. In the event that there is a leak around the toilet or under the bathroom and/or kitchen sink, you must turn off the water at the local shut off valve to prevent further damage. If you hear your toilet running constantly, you must turn off the local water supply valve prior to repair. The Tenant will be charged for a service call should our plumber be called for such work. Important: If your home has an open (raised) foundation with exposed pipes, you must leave faucets running slowly overnight if a hard freeze is forecast. We do not perform this service for a tenant if you are out of town. If you are, you must contact a friend or family member to accomplish this for you.

IRRIGATION HEADS, if applicable: The tenant is responsible for irrigation head replacement.

ELECTRICAL: The Tenant must replace faceplates on wall outlets, and light bulbs. Tenants must check and make sure the GFI outlet/breaker box has not been tripped in the event that some switches and/or electrical equipment is not working. During partial or full power outages, contact the power company first to ensure there are no local outages in your area.

HEATING AND AIR CONDITIONING: The Tenant must replace A/C filters monthly at Tenant's expense. (Note: This should be among the first items checked upon move in.) Be sure to check all switches, controls, circuit breakers and reset buttons before calling to report a malfunction. If the a/c is leaking, you must immediately turn off the air conditioning unit to reduce further damage, and then contact management for repairs.

APPLIANCES: The Tenant is responsible for providing all appliances and for proper use and maintenance of all appliances. Martin Housing Development, LLC will not provide, service and/or maintain appliances, "convenience" items such as but not limited to washing machines, dyers, refrigerators, dishwashers, microwave ovens, etc.; however, the Tenant will be charged for any repairs due to Tenant's negligence or misuse. The Tenant will be charged for service calls resulting from misuse or failure to check something obvious such as but not limited to something being plugged in, tripped circuit breaker or reset button, etc.
